ABOUT QUIK

Quik is owned, operated and manufactured right here in New Zealand. The brand is powered by a Kiwi team with decades of expertise in formulating and manufacturing quality cleaning products and treatments. When we created our range, we looked at what was on the shelves and thought, 'We can do better'. So we did.

All Quik products are industrial strength, with less filler and more of the good stuff. That means they get the job done Quik - no fuss, just results.
